The Russ Says Blog

Another tie for Father's Day? Sell it in our New Items section!

The Reconsume Center, home of the First Free Store is an alternative to throwing your items away. Other alternatives are to give them to organizations in our community to support their efforts. The Port Alberni community has shown their approval for an alternative to throwing perfectly good items into the landfill. To date thousands of items have been picked up for FREE from our First Free Store. Our plan is simple, we stop, collect then give for Free all the stuff YOU give right back to anyone that wants it right inside our community.

Also consider giving your items freely on this website. Items you are giving for free as well as items under $75.00 in value are advertised here for free and include a picture. If you have to move these items then please choose the Free Store or other organization instead of paying to throw it away.

Please stop throwing reconsumables into our landfill.

The Reconsume Center ~ First Free Store is dedicated to giving away to anyone that wants them all the items that are given to us.

We suggest the following:

A..please take these items for yourself

B..please take items to give to others

Please take items to create an income

Reconsume, Reconsume, Reconsume then break it down for recycle.

NEVER take it to the landfill....NEVER

Check out "the Russ" blog, for venture details.
